Gauge theory in noncommutative geometry

Pierre Martinetti

University of Genova

Abstract We will give an overview of how to formulate gauge theory in noncommutative geometry, focusing on the approach developed by Connes, based on spectral triples. In particular, we shall see how twisting spectral triples allows to go beyond the standard model of elementary particles.